Guillaume Bergot Joins Arundo Re as Non-Life Underwriter for the French Market

With over a decade of experience in the reinsurance industry, Guillaume Bergot has worked successively for Guy Carpenter and Gallagher Re.

Within these companies, he held the positions of reinsurance analyst and broker. He assisted insurers in structuring their reinsurance programs, both in France and internationally, covering a wide range of risks.

Thanks to these experiences, he has developed in-depth knowledge of the French market, as well as technical expertise in modeling, pricing and risk analysis. Guillaume Bergot has a Master's degree in statistics and econometrics from the University of Rennes 1, and has also conducted research in applied economics.

"We're delighted to have Guillaume on board. His appointment underlines our commitment to expanding our footprint in the French market, which is obviously highly strategic for Arundo Re." says Hervé Nessi, Chief Underwriting Officer at Arundo Re.
